

Renowned Chicago home furnishings emporium Jayson Home announces a seasonal pop up store in the Hamptons

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE Chicago IL (April 14, 2016) – Jayson Home, the renowned Chicago home furnishings emporium, today announces the Grand Opening of a seasonal store in the Hamptons. The store, located in Sag Harbor NY, opens May 29 for a weekend-long Open House celebration. This marks the store's first venture outside the Chicago flagship and the venture is highly anticipated by Jayson Home's loyal, design-minded customer base, many of whom just know the store from its online presence.

"We're looking forward to reaching many of our designer clientele who may be familiar with our website but haven't been able to experience the store in person. Plus we're just happy to be headed to the beach to showcase our signature collection," says Jayson Home VP of Merchandising Devin Kirk.

The collection includes home furnishings, extraordinary antiques from France, England and beyond, textiles and rugs from Morocco, a sublime collection of candles, and the best gifts for giving your Hamptons hostess and everyone else.

Jayson Home Hamptons will open May 29, 2016 at 3 Madison Street in Sag Harbor and will be open for the season daily from 10-6.

Jayson Home is an urban home emporium offering a sublime collection of new, vintage and antique furniture and accessories. A destination for top designers, style editors and savvy shoppers, Jayson Home's retail location is housed in a century-old, 20,000-square-foot converted warehouse in one of Chicago's trendiest shopping districts. The store also operates a website that is a favorite resource for design aficionados from around the world. Jayson Home is regularly featured in magazines such as Elle Decor and Architectural Digest, and on countless websites, blogs and television programs.

Press contact: media@goltzgroup.com

###