The Jayson Home Analogue Shop at Soho House ~ Dec 5, 2015

Jayson Home is building The Analogue Shop in The Allis at Soho House, a one day event designed to be the antithesis of Cyber Monday. Expect offline, in-person experiences such as stations where you can color in a holiday card or gift tag, crank out a custom haiku as a stocking stuffer on a vintage typewriter, or craft an ornament. Plus, a curated trunk show of Jayson Home offerings and vintage finds.

The Jayson Home Analogue Shop at Soho House:

- ~ Colouring station of holiday cards + gifts: chic, original designs geared towards adult coloring but of course great for the kids too
- ~ Haiku station: using vintage typewriters we'll crank out custom poems perfect for stuffing stockings
- ~ Ornament crafting station: classic craft workshop taken up a notch with our sophisticated materials
- ~ Polaroid portrait station: we will be taking complimentary, old school holiday Polaroid portraits
- ~ Curated selection of our very favourite offerings: including a trunk show of vintage finds not available online, and a selection of holiday greens, flowers and other living things
- ~ The Allis signature tea service will be incorporated into the Analogue Shop beginning at 2pm
- ~ All magically presented with Jayson Home propping and flowers, unlike anything you've seen at our store or anywhere else
